

WSE Cosmpolitan Youth English Summer Camps 2018

The Programme

WSE Cosmopolitan Youth English Summer Camps aims at providing our local primary and secondary students a fun-to-join, activity-based English learning experience which emphasizes on building up their confidence and cultivating their interest in communicating in English.

Native English speaking instructors from overseas, who are studying in education-related discipline, are carefully selected from leading universities in UK, with volunteers recruited from Hong Kong's universities being teaching assistants.

Aims

1. To provide students a fun-to-join, activity-based English learning experience
2. To practice and improve students' English speaking and listening skills through the programme
3. To foster mutual understanding and intercultural communication skills and experience among local students and overseas teachers

Camp Staff

The programme in each school is run by a teaching team consisting of 7 overseas instructors and 7 local teaching assistants. Each overseas instructor is teamed up with a local assistant to conduct the lessons and activities throughout the camp.

In every team, 1 overseas instructor takes up the position of Camp Director, who is responsible for organizing the content of the programme, while 1 local teaching assistant takes up the position of Deputy Camp Director, who is responsible for the logistics and support the programme.

A staff of CYEC will act as Programme Coordinator to oversee & coordinate the camp programme.

Qualification of Instructors

Native English speaking instructors are the undergraduate or graduate students of leading universities in U.K. The students are studying different programs in Education related discipline, and are carefully selected by their institution.

The tentative list of universities and respective degree programme studying are:

- University of Northampton (U.K.)
 - School of Education
- Newman University (U.K.)
 - BA (Hons) in Education Studies

Local teaching assistants are undergraduate students of local universities. They are interviewed and carefully selected by the programme advisory board.

Past Experience

The first WSE English Summer Camp took place under the name Cosmopolitan Youth in 2004, and we have served over 100 local primary and secondary schools. As a result of the success of this first year, we have continued to expand the programme ever since, and 2018 summer marks the 15th year of the programme.

The Organizer and Operator

Wofoo Social Enterprises (WSE)

WSE is a government approved charitable organization which is a unified branding for all social services supported by Wofoo Foundation. Besides donations and sponsorships, WSE partners with the Government, private sector, and the third sector in delivery and content development of many programmes for our beneficiaries. We also actively support and advocate for social change through researching and providing a platform for policy discussion.

After years of “gestation,” WSE has begun to take shape with key service areas in Elderly Care, Youth Development, Institutional Education, and Partnerships. Wofoo Leaders' Network (WLN) and Wofoo Youth Network (WYN) are established to facilitate youth development with the joint effort of tertiary institutions, primary and secondary schools as well as government and professionals.

Chinese Youth Exchange Centre (CYEC)

CYEC is a non-profit organization that aims to promote cultural empathy and exchange among local youth with young Chinese people from mainland China and other countries.
